My Daze
AUTOMOBILE CORNER
I have been on this page, you will see the fruits of a few years' labor by some local readers. I managed to get a look at Johnny Baker's Ford before he retired, and it is really a tribute to his ingenuity when you see the finished car. Since we're in the mood for some automobile talk, October 6 and 7, and if you want to step back in time a little, don't miss it.

Bonding being a beautiful drive in the country, the Fairgrounds are in a very rural setting. New I know some of you can remember times as a kid when Mom and Dad would take you to the South Mountain Fair. They'll like it, too.

Farmers' Fair Memorabilia

Farmers' Fair memorabilia will have ample opportunity to add to their collections with the 75th Anniversary mug, calendar, and books being sold by the Dillsburg Community Fair Association.

The mug, a traditional Dillsburg Fair mug, is a must-have for anyone who loves the fair. It features the fair's logo and the year 1900-1975. The calendar, a 12-month calendar, features the fair's logo and the year 1900-1975. The books, a collection of books, feature the fair's logo and the year 1900-1975.

Reflections on a Lifetime

I remember one beautiful Spring day when Dad was plowing in the field next to the school, the windows were open and we were all enjoying the beautiful afternoon. What prompted my next action I will never know, but I got up from my seat and ran out to my father. That much I remember, but I do not recall what happened after that. Did he make me go back in or was it not the end of the school day that he sent me home? I do not know.

All of the experiences were not pleasant ones and now I must relate one of the saddest of my life. The funeral was held at the church on the 10th of the month. I was very young at the time, but I remember the funeral very well. It was a very sad day, and I will never forget it.

I shall always remember that night as long as I live for I do not think of it as a happy one, and I imagine that we were frightened being alone in this empty farm house and fearful for our mother.

About two o'clock the next morning there were car lights coming in the dirt road to our place from the highway beyond. We could see the headlights, but we could not see the car. It was a very dark night, and the headlights were the only light we had.

Needless to say, this event had a profound effect upon my life. The funeral was held at the church on the 10th of the month. I was very young at the time, but I remember the funeral very well. It was a very sad day, and I will never forget it.

Tough Week for Polar Bear Midgets

by Alex Peters
The gloomy night Sunday September 16 marked the end of our Polar Bear players and fans as all three teams suffered defeat at the hands of the Dauphinville Eagles.

The usually very tough defense of the Northern Bears suffered an uncharacteristic breakdown. The midgets were the league's (couldn't) worst 20 by halftime putting Northern on a hole and down to get out of.

There were a few bright spots defensively. The return of the Bears to the ice and the return of the Bears to the ice and the return of the Bears to the ice.

Trojans Flatten Northern

by John Middlekoff
Friday night (9/14) Northern invaded the precious confines of Hershey Stadium. When the smoke cleared the home-dwelling Trojans had dominated the Polar Bears 11 to 7. So much for the Northern we strall by half size this one was over. Hershey produced 14 points in the opening quarter and lacked on 17 in the second quarter and Northern resting to its second loss in the series. First in Mid Penna. corner.

The story on this one is pretty simple. Hershey's game plan was to run at the Bears and make them stop. Well, at least not stop them to make a difference. The Trojans rushed 26 times in this game for a total of 224 yards. Northern had 16 rushes for a grand total of 10 yards. With its ground game at a standstill, the Bears had to go to the passing game for any offense. Northern suffered 2 interceptions along the way. The Bears only points of the evening came by way of a 13 yard scoring strike from Phil Gentry to Joel Cook in the fourth quarter. Chris Kibler added the P.A.T. for the only consolation Northern would get from this game.

It is a fairly simple game plan that this could have been won. Hershey was all that this perfect. The Trojans accepted themselves on several occasions by giving up the football and being (hug) in their penalties. But the bottom line was that Northern was not to win, which brings us to next week's contest for Northern.

The Polar Bears will return to Robert Bonic field to take on the Hershey Bears. The Bears will be looking to get back on track. Of course there is another side to the coin. Northern could be their worst enemy. Northern could be their worst enemy. Northern could be their worst enemy.
